

The board of directors (Board) of Ansell Limited (Company) actively seeks to ensure it has an appropriate mix of diversity, skills, experience and expertise to enable it to discharge its responsibilities effectively and to be well equipped to help our company navigate the range of opportunities and challenges it faces.

The Board has created the following matrix, capturing the key skills and other attributes of Board members which it believes are needed for robust decision-making and the effective governance of the Company. The matrix is reviewed and updated periodically to ensure that it covers the attributes needed to address existing and emerging business and governance issues relevant to the Company. These skills and attributes are prioritised when identifying potential future Director candidates as part of coordinated succession planning.

Further, every 3 years directors are asked to undertake a self-assessment of their own attributes with reference to the matrix. As part of this self-assessment, directors are asked to grade their capability or competency in respect of a particular attribute from [1 to 5], with [1] being no capability or competency and [5] being capability or competency is present and strongly developed. The Board considers that a grade of [3] or above indicates a 'developed capability or competency' and the table below summarises the number of directors with a 'developed capability or competency' for each skill or area of experience or other attribute based on their most recently completed self-assessment.

While each director has varying levels of skills, knowledge and experience and every director does not possess each skill or have the same knowledge or experience, the Board believes that collectively it possesses the requisite blend of skills and other attributes to discharge its duties effectively.
