2025 ENDEVOUR DENTAL INNOVATOR AWARDS

(07/22/2025), Iselin, NJ, the 2025 Dental Innovator Awards, presented by the editorial team at Dental Economics, RDH, and DentistryIQ, celebrate outstanding product and service design that drives innovation in the dental industry. Each year, Endeavor recognizes companies that advance oral health through creative and impactful solutions.

Winners are chosen by a panel of independent qualified judges selected by the editorial staff at Dentistry IQ, Dental Economics, and RDH. Gold, Silver, and Bronze Honorees are revealed during the week of the RDH Under One Roof annual event.

On July 19, 2025, Ansell, a global leader in personal protective equipment (PPE), was named a Silver Honoree in the Product category for MICROFLEX™ Ultraform™ UF-524. Voted by leaders in the dental community, this recognition highlights Ansell's innovative solutions that protect workers across healthcare and industrial settings.

Microflex Ultraform is the only half-size glove available on the market with U.S. Ergonomic Certification. Engineered to reduce muscle strain and hand fatigue, it delivers precision during procedures and comfort throughout the day. Made from soft, thin nitrile, it provides reliable protection with an exceptional fit and the tactile sensitivity needed for fine motor control. Because it's not just about HOW YOU WORK — it's HOW YOU FEEL after the workday.

"Winning the Endeavor Innovator Award for MICROFLEX™ Ultraform™ is a proud moment for our entire team." Said Bill Jordan, Sr. Director, Vertical & Channel Development at Ansell. "This recognition reflects Ansell's deep commitment to ergonomic innovation and our mission to design PPE that truly supports the health and performance of professionals. Ultraform isn't just a glove — it's a game-changer in comfort, precision, and protection."

With over 130 years of experience, Ansell continues to deliver high-quality PPE that protects healthcare and industrial workers worldwide.
